

Confirmation that informed consent was obtained from the patient

Informed consent and sufficient anonymisation is mandatory for all case reports submitted to the Swiss Medical Weekly. Informed consent for this purpose requires that an identifiable patient be shown the manuscript to be published. Authors should disclose to these patients that the material will be freely accessible on the internet after publication.

Article title:
Author name:
I hereby confirm that the patient mentioned in the above-named his/her informed consent for this article to be published in the jou Medical Weekly" and/or the preprint server "SwissMedPreprints" the article, and that I have archived the consent form in the patie records.	urnal "Swiss after being shown
Signature: Date:

(Please submit this page online with your article or send it to the editorial office: office@smw.ch)

Consent form

Name (patient):
Art	cicle title:
me	ereby give my consent for the information about me to be published in the online edical journal "Swiss Medical Weekly" and/or the preprint website wissMedPreprints".
l ha	ave seen the figures, if applicable, and have read the text to be published.
l ha	ave taken note of following:
1.	My name will not be mentioned in the published article. I understand, however, that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed.
2.	The material will be published in in the online journal "Swiss Medical Weekly" (www.smw.ch) and/or on the preprint server SwissMedPreprints (www.swissmedpreprints.pub). Both websites are freely accessible to everyone free of charge. The articles are mainly read by healthcare professionals but may also be seen by many others.
3.	The material is not allowed to be published elsewhere without my renewed consent.
Sig	gnature: Date:

(This form must be archived in the patient's medical record)